

An implicit-explicit finite difference method for a nonlinear Dirac system

Georgios Zouraris

Department of Mathematics, University of Crete, Heraklion Crete, Greece

`zouraris@math.uoc.gr`

We consider a nonlinear Dirac system in one space dimension with periodic boundary conditions. We propose an implicit-explicit finite difference method to approximate its solution, proving optimal order a priori error estimates in various discrete norms and showing results from numerical experiments.